

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting locations location can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

~~“Please vote early as almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election,” Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties, who determine. The parties determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this elections, each party will have just under 400 voting locations. “The political parties consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day result in voters having to vote a different location. That is why, in this instance, it is very important to vote early.”~~

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to receive EIC applicants:

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting locations can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

“Please vote early as almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election,” Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, alerted voters. Primary elections are run by the political parties. The parties determine the number of polling locations and where the polling locations are situated. For this elections, each party will have under 400 voting locations. “The political parties consolidation of voting precincts on Election Day result in voters having to vote a different location. That is why, in this instance, it is very important to vote early.”

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph

- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to receive EIC applicants:

Mr. Stanart,

I hope you don't mind but I rephrased the second paragraph.

I omitted the part o about not having enough equipment. Even if it is a fact, I do not think we should concede anything that may give somebody the idea that we are ill prepared to handle a large election.

Please review and amend where needed and let me know when you believe it is ready to go.

FRIDAY, FEB. 28th - LAST DAY TO VOTE EARLY IN THE PRIMARY ELECTION

In Primaries, the Election Day locations are not the same as in General Elections

Houston, TX – Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that Friday, February 28th is the last day to early vote in the Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections. Stanart stressed that during Early Voting, one can vote at any of the 39 countywide early voting locations that are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday. The complete list of every voting locations can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

Stanart, the Chief Election Officer of the County, warned voters to, "Please Vote Early as almost half of the Election Day voting locations are different from the location where voters voted in the November 2013 Election." In Primaries, because each party runs their own election and Harris County does not have enough voting equipment for each party to have 785 locations, each party will have under 400 consolidate voting locations. The end result is many precincts will vote at a different location than in the last election. Stanart add, "If you vote on Election Day, please go to www.HarrisVotes.com to find where your precinct votes on Election Day."

As part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, Stanart also reminds voters that a Photo ID is required to vote at the poll in all Texas elections.

The state approved Photo IDs for voting include:

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate (EIC)
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person's photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person's photograph
- United States passport

“If voters do not have one of the acceptable forms of photo identification commonly acquired from state and federal agencies, voters may obtain an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) free of charge at Department of Public Safety (DPS) branch offices” informed Stanart. Aside from regular Monday to Friday business hours, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., to receive EIC applicants:

EARLY VOTING CONTINUES FOR MARCH PRIMARY ELECTIONS:
DPS Offices Open Saturdays for voters needing Election Identification Certificates

Houston, TX – As early voting continues for the March 4, 2014 Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections, Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that photo identification is required to vote at the polls. Early voting will take place from February 18th - 28th at 39 locations across Harris County. The complete list of every voting locations and times can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

With the exception of the U.S. citizenship certificate and some military identification, the ID must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place.

Voters may apply for an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) at no charge at the Department of Public Safety (DPS) if they do not have one of the credentials on the list of acceptable forms of photo identification, during regular business hours Monday - Friday. In addition, as part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturdays, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., through March 1, 2014, to issue EICs:

Voters may find more information on the requirements to apply for an EIC, exemptions and process for obtaining an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) at <http://www.dps.texas.gov/>.

Voters who qualify to vote by mail are generally exempt from the Photo ID requirement. All ballot by mail applications for the March Primaries must be received at the County Clerk’s Office by Friday, February 21st.

“In the Nov. 2013 Election, the first election in which Photo ID was required at the poll in Texas, over 99.9% of the voters in Harris County were prepared and able to provide an acceptable form of Photo ID. The work to make voters aware of the new law was successful and continues,” informed Stanart. “I am expecting the primary elections will go equally as well.”

To obtain an early voting schedule and more election information, voters may visit www.HarrisVotes.com or call 713-755-6965.

EARLY VOTING BEGINS FOR MARCH PRIMARY ELECTIONS: DPS Offices Open Saturdays for voters needing Election Identification Certificates

Houston, TX – As early voting gets underway for the March 4, 2014 Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections, Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that photo identification is required to vote at the polls. Early voting will take place from February 18th - 28th at 39 locations across Harris County. The complete list of every voting locations and times can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

With the exception of the U.S. citizenship certificate and some military identification, the ID must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place.

Voters may apply for an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) at no charge at the Department of Public Safety (DPS) if they do not have one of the credentials on the list of acceptable forms of photo identification, during regular business hours Monday - Friday. In addition, as part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturdays, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., through March 1, 2014, to issue EICs:

Early voting will take place from February 18th - 28th at 39 locations across Harris County. The complete list of every voting locations and times can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

With the exception of the U.S. citizenship certificate and some military identification, the ID must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place.

Voters may apply for an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) at no charge at the Department of Public Safety (DPS) if they do not have one of the credentials on the list of acceptable forms of photo identification, during regular business hours Monday - Friday. In addition, as part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturdays, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., through March 1, 2014, to issue EICs:

EARLY VOTING BEGINS FOR MARCH PRIMARY ELECTIONS:

DPS Offices Open Saturdays for voters needing Election Identification Certificates

Houston, TX – As early voting gets underway for the March 4, 2014 Democratic and Republican Party Primary Elections, Harris County Clerk Stan Stanart reminds voters that photo identification is required to vote at the polls. Early voting will take place from February 18th - 28th at 39 locations across Harris County. The complete list of every voting locations and times can be found at www.HarrisVotes.com.

- Texas driver license issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- Texas personal identification card issued by DPS
- Texas concealed handgun license issued by DPS
- United States military identification card containing the person’s photograph
- United States citizenship certificate containing the person’s photograph
- United States passport

With the exception of the U.S. citizenship certificate and some military identification, the ID must be current or have expired no more than 60 days before being presented at the polling place.

Voters may apply for an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) at no charge at the Department of Public Safety (DPS) if they do not have one of the credentials on the list of acceptable forms of photo identification, during regular business hours Monday - Friday. In addition, as part of the continuing effort to ensure voters have the proper identification to vote, the following DPS offices in Harris County will be open on Saturdays, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., through March 1, 2014, to issue EICs:

Voters may find more information on the requirements to apply for an EIC, exemptions and process for obtaining an Election Identification Certificate (EIC) at <http://www.dps.texas.gov/>.

Voters who qualify to vote by mail are generally exempt from the Photo ID requirement. All ballot by mail applications for the March Primaries must be received at the County Clerk's Office by Friday, February 21st.

"In the Nov. 2013 Election, the first election in which Photo ID was required at the poll in Texas, over 99.9% of the voters in Harris County were prepared and able to provide an acceptable form of Photo ID. The work to make voters aware of the new law was successful and continues," informed Stanart. "I am expecting the primary elections will go equally as well."

To obtain an early voting schedule and more election information, voters may visit www.HarrisVotes.com or call 713-755-6965.
